You may list my name as a supporter of Redwood City Neighbors United on the website and printed materials

Why list my name? At some point, it may be beneficial to our efforts to list our many community supporters to demonstrate the deep opposition of local residents to the proposed development. By checking this box, you give us permission to list only your name on our website and/or in printed materials. If you change your mind later, you may email us at info@rcnu.org, or write us at the address provided below to opt out. If you do not check the box, your identity is protected according to our Privacy Policy described below.

Please contact me about volunteer opportunities and things I can do to stop the proposed development (such as writing letters to the editor, hosting a house party, tabling at community events, reaching out to local businesses, or helping to coordinate RCNU-sponsored activities).

Your comments or suggestions?:

Thank you, Neighbor! We'll be contacting you about the next steps we can take to oppose the Saltworks project. With your support, we will keep Redwood City a great place to live.

Privacy policy: Redwood City Neighbors United is an independent, not-for-profit community organization. We respect your privacy and will not sell or share your contact information with any other organization, nor will we identify you as a supporter of Redwood City Neighbors United without your specific permission. We will use your contact information to provide you with occasional updates on our activities and, if you so indicate, contact you directly about volunteer opportunities. You can opt out of mail or online updates at any point by emailing info@rcnu.org or writing us at Redwood City Neighbors United, P.O. Box 416, Redwood City, CA 94064.*
